

Number of replies received by Want advertisers at World's own post-office up to date in 1894:

Results are the things that count.
World advertisers get before Two Million people.

PRICE ONE CENT.

6 O'CLOCK
EXTRA.

BIG BREAK
IN SUGAR.

The Common Stock Falls 5 5-8 Points and 86,000
Shares Are Sold.

PANDEMONIUM ON 'CHANGE.

Talk of Closing Refineries and a Dividend Out Causes
a Slump.

WALL STREET FEELS BITTER.

Senator Brice Says a Free Sugar Bill Depends Upon the President's Message.

As a result of the threat made by the Sugar Trust to shut down its refineries indefinitely, and the fact that preparations have been made to carry this threat into immediate execution, American Refineries securities were slaughtered at the Stock Exchange at the opening this morning.

On Wednesday the rumor that reached the street just before the close of business on the Exchange sent the common stock tumbling down from 9 3/4 to 9 1/4, a drop of three points for the day, and this morning the decline was still more sharp.

There was perfect pandemonium in the Sugar crowd when the gong sounded at 10 o'clock for the opening of the market, and brokers fairly tumbled over each other in their frantic efforts to get rid of their Trust stock.

The common shares opened at 9 1/4, a decline of 1 1/4 points from Wednesday's closing, and within the first quarter of an hour had sold down to 9 1/8, a drop of 5 1/8, when there was a very slight rally, thousands of shares changed hands in this brief interval, and it seemed as if everybody had some of the stock to sell.
The downward course of the market for the preferred stock, which pays a dividend of 12 per cent., was equally marked. From the close on Wednesday night at 93 1/4 it opened this morning at 93 and quickly dropped to 91 1/2, at which figure the market steadied somewhat.

During the early afternoon there was a slight advance for Sugar certificates in the stock market, and prices were firmer, but the street does not generally look for any permanent improvement so long as there is a prospect of a general shut-down of the refineries.

Several dispatches from Washington were in circulation, and the bears made a good deal of capital of the story that President Cleveland would surely recommend a further reduction in the sugar tariff in his message to Congress.

One special front of the Company's impression here is that the President's message will advocate the removal of the duties on the refined sugar, and the tariff is going to be a sugar session, and the crisis is already on.

According to Mr. Havemeyer's statement, only so much of the force of workmen as is necessary to complete the work in hand will be retained after Monday next, and he declares that it would be cheaper to shut down entirely rather than make a reduced amount at an increased cost.

The general belief in financial circles is that the Trust has only made this move in order to influence the action of Senators in the coming session of Congress and endeavor to prevent any action from putting through the bill for free sugar, which was passed by the House before its adjournment last summer.

In other words, it is only a "bluff" when President Havemeyer says that the operations of the Company during the last three months under the new tariff have been conducted at a serious loss, and that if any further reduction of duties is made by Congress it will result in killing the sugar refining business completely in this country.

The present shutting down of the refineries of the Trust means at least the throwing out of employment of 10,000 workmen, even on the basis of a 50 per cent. reduction in the force which Mr.
Havemeyer thinks will be necessary.

While President Havemeyer is very cautious in his statement regarding the probable action of the Senate on the Free Sugar bill, it is a well-known fact that the confidence between Senators Brisson and Gorman, Jones, of Arkansas, and Smith, of New Jersey, have aroused a great deal of uneasiness among the sugar magnates, and it is only natural that they should determine upon some vigorous policy to prevent any action which would result in still further lowering of the duties upon raw sugar.

The talk in Wall Street to-day relates to the announcement that the Sugar Trust would close down its refineries definitely until it should be learned what action Congress would take on the free sugar proposition was extremely bitter.

It was every where declared that this was only another scheme on the part of the sugar magnates to manipulate the market, and to draw money in their pockets, at the expense of the public, as well as to influence legislation by Congress. The idea that the Trust was becoming impoverished in consequence of the present tariff was, it was said, a hoax, and the supply of sugar is remarkably large.

It is stated that the stock of raw sugar at the refineries of the Trust in this vicinity is now but little more than enough to supply the works for four or five days.

(Continued on Third Page.)

BLACK CAT ON GUARD.

Capt. Price Following Up Suspicious
Advertisements.

Capt. Price, of the West Thirty-seventh street police station, has been reading the papers. He found an advertisement that stated that "cards and hands" could be "read" at 50 cents a perusal at 465 Tenth avenue, where Mrs. Mack, "late of Forty-second street," might be consulted. Officer Dale was detailed to judge Mrs. Mack as a reader. He went to her apartments, which are dingy and mysterious. There are black hangings on the walls, and a black cat guards the door. Mrs. Mack is semi-paralyzed. She accepted 50 cents in advance from Mr.
Dale. With aid of a greasy pack of cards and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told what she knew about Dale. She said he had his ups and downs in the world. Dale said that was so. She told Dale he was born to command men.

Acting under the captain's orders he secured a warrant from Justice Hogan started in to-day to get material upon which to press the charges made against District-Attorney John R. Fellows.
Two of the members, F. O. Dettman and August Kleinau, who are also members of the Committee which brought the charges against Col. Fellows before the Governor, on behalf of their organization, called at the office of the District-Attorney this afternoon and announced that they wished to look over the records of the office.

The latter gentlemen were informed that Col. Fellows was out, and were told Mr. Unger, that they should be wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

LOOKING UP RECORDS.

German-American Reform Union
Members Call on Fellows.

The German-American Reform Union
started in to-day to get material upon
which to press the charges made against
District-Attorney John R. Fellows.
Two of the members, F. O. Dettman
and August Kleinau, who are also members of the Committee which brought
the charges against Col. Fellows before
the Governor, on behalf of their organization, called at the office of the District-Attorney this afternoon and announced that they wished to look over
the records of the office.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

With aid of a greasy pack of cards
and a look at his palm Mrs. Mack told
what she knew about Dale. She said he
had his ups and downs in the world. Dale
said that was so. She told Dale he was
born to command men.

The latter gentlemen were informed
that Col. Fellows was out, and were
told Mr. Unger, that they should be
wished to look over some of the papers
of the office.

MAY ARREST ROCKEFELLER.

All the Standard Oil Magnates May Have to Go to Jail.

A TEXAS SHERIFF AFTER THEM

Papers Asking for Their Extradition Have Been Sent to Gov. Flower.

IT MEANS A HARD LEGAL FIGHT.

The Oil Men Will Resist, for Once in Texas Things Will Go Hard.

The magnates of the Standard Oil Company are in a way to find themselves in the clutches of the law. The Texas authorities have struck a hot trail for their violation of the Texas trust laws, and have not only indicted them but have taken steps for their extradition. Under Sheriff Mc-Donough received this morning a letter written on the official letterheads of W.
L. Burke, Sheriff of Lennan County, Texas. It reads:

"WACO, Tex., Nov. 30, 1894.
"To the Sheriff, New York City, N. Y.: "Dear Sir: I have this day mailed to your Governor, R. P. Flower, registration papers for John D. Rockefeller, William Rockefeller, Henry M. Flagler, John D. Archibald, Benjamin Brewster, Henry C. Rogers, Wesley H. Tilford, of your city. When you rec. the Govs. Warrant Please execute at once and wire me, and I will come on at once. Yours to Command, W. L. BURKE, Sheriff."

The Under Sheriff at once forwarded the communication to Police Headquarters, which alone will take the steps necessary to put the indicted magnates in custody.

S. C. T. Dodd counsel for the Standard Oil Company, said to an "Evening World" reporter that he had heard nothing officially from Texas. He was not surprised that an application for extradition was to be made, and supposed that Mr. Rockefeller and associates would be arrested.

"They will at once furnish bail," he said, "pending the Governor's decision, and if Gov. Flower decides that they must go to Texas, why of course they will go in custody."

The second question is the law was very explicit in its statement that if the Governor decided that the individual for whom a regulation had been made was a "fugitive from justice," he should be returned, provided the examining magistrate was satisfied as to the indictment, &c. He falls to see how Mr. Rockefeller and associates can be fugitives from justice from a State in which they never had been.

In opposing the application Mr. Dodd will rely on this point mainly. Providing the oil magnates did go to Texas, &c. He falls to see how Mr. Rockefeller
and associates can be fugitives from
justice from a State in which they
never had been.

At Mr. Rockefeller's and Mr. Flagler's offices it was said that neither gentlemen was in town to-day.

Mr. Dunn says Peabody Flakes Will
Fall To-Morrow Night.

Light snowstorms and fog for today and to-night and more snow for tomorrow night is the best Mr. Dunn can do for New York and vicinity.

The flurry of feathery flakes that fell this morning was carried in the train from the West, and is being blown in the Upper Ohio Valley to-day, and is expected to reach here to-morrow night and Sunday morning. It will not be severe.

The second question is the law was very
explicit in its statement that if the Governor decided that the individual for
whom a regulation had been made was
a "fugitive from justice," he should be
returned, provided the examining magistrate was satisfied as to the indictment,
&c. He falls to see how Mr. Rockefeller
and associates can be fugitives from
justice from a State in which they
never had been.

At Mr. Rockefeller's and Mr. Flagler's
offices it was said that neither gentlemen
was in town to-day.

Mr. Dunn says Peabody Flakes Will
Fall To-Morrow Night.

Light snowstorms and fog for to-
day and to-night and more snow for to-
morrow night is the best Mr. Dunn
can do for New York and vicinity.

The flurry of feathery flakes that fell
this morning was carried in the train
from the West, and is being blown
in the Upper Ohio Valley to-day,
and is expected to reach here to-morrow
night and Sunday morning. It will not be severe.

The second question is the law was very
explicit in its statement that if the Governor decided that the individual for
whom a regulation had been made was
a "fugitive from justice," he should be
returned, provided the examining magistrate was satisfied as to the indictment,
&c. He falls to see how Mr. Rockefeller
and associates can be fugitives from
justice from a State in which they
never had been.

At Mr. Rockefeller's and Mr. Flagler's
offices it was said that neither gentlemen
was in town to-day.

Mr. Dunn says Peabody Flakes Will
Fall To-Morrow Night.

Light snowstorms and fog for to-
day and to-night and more snow for to-
morrow night is the best Mr. Dunn
can do for New York and vicinity.

The flurry of feathery flakes that fell
this morning was carried in the train
from the West, and is being blown
in the Upper Ohio Valley to-day,
and is expected to reach here to-morrow
night and Sunday morning. It will not be severe.

The second question is the law was very
explicit in its statement that if the Governor decided that the individual for
whom a regulation had been made was
a "fugitive from justice," he should be
returned, provided the examining magistrate was satisfied as to the indictment,
&c. He falls to see how Mr. Rockefeller
and associates can be fugitives from
justice from a State in which they
never had been.

At Mr. Rockefeller's and Mr. Flagler's
offices it was said that neither gentlemen
was in town to-day.

Mr. Dunn says Peabody Flakes Will
Fall To-Morrow Night.

SAM SEELY INDICTED.

Grand Jury Finds Ten Charges of Forgery and Grand Larceny.

Reward of $5,000 for His Arrest Offered by the Bank.

Another Box Owned by Baker Opened and Found Empty.

Tea indictments were handed in to-day by the Grand Jury against Samuel C. Seely
by the Grand Jury against Samuel C. Seely, the defaulting bookkeeper of the Shoe and Leather Bank, alleging forgery and grand larceny.

They were filed with Judge Fitzgerald in Part I. of General Sessions at 1 o'clock.
All were found on the evidence of Cashier Van Vleck. Bench warrants were issued for the arrest of Seely.

The Board of Directors of the National Shoe and Leather Bank this morning decided to offer a reward of $5,000 for the apprehension and conviction of Samuel C. Seely.

Although this action on the part of the bank officials came late, it seems to indicate that there have been no overtures towards a settlement made by Seely.

The directors met at 10 o'clock this morning in the Board room, on the second floor of the bank, and were present attendance, and while it was the bank was absolutely nothing new, and
the proceedings were doubtless of more than usual interest to the directors.

Seely was indicted on ten charges of grand larceny, and on ten charges of forgery. The charges were all of the same nature, and were all of the same nature.

The directors met at 10 o'clock this
morning in the Board room, on the second floor of the bank, and were present
attendance, and while it was the
bank was absolutely nothing new, and
the proceedings were doubtless of more than
usual interest to the directors.

Seely was indicted on ten charges of
grand larceny, and on ten charges of
forgery. The charges were all of the
same nature, and were all of the same
nature.

The directors met at 10 o'clock this
morning in the Board room, on the second floor of the bank, and were present
attendance, and while it was the
bank was absolutely nothing new, and
the proceedings were doubtless of more than
usual interest to the directors.

Seely was indicted on ten charges of
grand larceny, and on ten charges of
forgery. The charges were all of the
same nature, and were all of the same
nature.

The directors met at 10 o'clock this
morning in the Board room, on the second floor of the bank, and were present
attendance, and while it was the
bank was absolutely nothing new, and
the proceedings were doubtless of more than
usual interest to the directors.

Seely was indicted on ten charges of
grand larceny, and on ten charges of
forgery. The charges were all of the
same nature, and were all of the same
nature.

The directors met at 10 o'clock this
morning in the Board room, on the second floor of the bank, and were present
attendance, and while it was the
bank was absolutely nothing new, and
the proceedings were doubtless of more than
usual interest to the directors.

Seely was indicted on ten charges of
grand larceny, and on ten charges of
forgery. The charges were all of the
same nature, and were all of the same
nature.

The directors met at 10 o'clock this
morning in the Board room, on the second floor of the bank, and were present
attendance, and while it was the
bank was absolutely nothing new, and
the proceedings were doubtless of more than
usual interest to the directors.

Seely was indicted on ten charges of
grand larceny, and on ten charges of
forgery. The charges were all of the
same nature, and were all of the same
nature.

The directors met at 10 o'clock this
morning in the Board room, on the second floor of the bank, and were present
attendance, and while it was the
bank was absolutely nothing new, and
the proceedings were doubtless of more than usual interest to the directors.